

James 1:19-27
Lesson 3

James 1:19-27

1. Have you learned to be a good listener?
2. Do you take time to think before you speak? Do you have control over your tongue?
3. What can be harmful about your anger? What have you learned about the destructiveness of anger? (Ephesians 4:26)
4. If you were going to help someone else get rid of their moral filth where would you begin? If you were serious about cleaning up your home to rid yourself of moral filth, what would you get rid of first?
(1Peter 2:1 Ephesians 5:3)
5. How can we be deceived after listening to Gods word?
6. How often should we look into the mirror of Gods word? Are you honest with yourself about your personal inconsistencies and sins? Will you humble yourself and change?
7. Does God reward doers of the word?

8. What does the tongue have to do with your spiritual life?

9. How can your tongue ruin your Christian witness?
(Proverbs 10:19 & Proverbs 17:28)

10. What is a Christians tongue designed for?

11. How does James define pure & faultless religion?

12. Do most Christians ever think of their responsibility for widows & orphans?
(Psalm 146:9) (Deuteronomy 10:17-18)

13. What does a Christian do to become polluted or stained by the world?
The only stain that should be seen on a Christian is the blood of Christ.
