Lesson 4 – James 2:14:26
THE BOOK OF JAMES

1) Is there any value or good in claiming to have faith but to have no deeds?

2) Can faith without works (deeds) save a person?

3) What word does James use to describe faith without action? (v. 17)

4) What is the response of demons toward God? What does it mean to 'shudder'?

5) What Scriptural examples can we cite to show the demons believe there is one God?

6) What examples are cited by James as evidence for the necessity of deeds with faith?

7) Where in Scripture do we read of Abraham offering his son Isaac and where do we read of Rahab hiding the spies?

8) What does Abraham's faith and actions together do to his relationship with God?
