

Colossians 3:18 - 4:1

1. To what extent are wives to submit to their husbands? (Ephesians 5:21-24) Is the word submit a bad or good word in 2014?
2. How important is it to a Christian marriage for husband and wife to submit to one another?
3. What are some synonyms for the word “Harsh”? (Ephesians 5:25-28) Does meanness or rudeness create a loving marriage relationship?
4. At what age do children no longer have to respect their parent’s wishes? How do you apply Gods command to Honor your parents? (Ephesians 6:1-3)
5. How does a parent embitter his child? (Ephesians 6:4) Do you have an example of someone doing this and the consequences of their actions?
6. Does this admonition for slaves apply to employees of a company or business? (Titus 2:9-10)

7. Vs. 23 talks about diligently working with passion. Does that characterize our service at Capri Church? If not, why not? (Romans 12:11)

8. Who rewards our faithful service to God? (Romans 6:8)

9. Colossians 3:25 states that God does not show favoritism and will hold everyone accountable for their actions, how do we reconcile this truth with the reality of seemingly unjust prosperity among those who do evil? What insights can we draw from Scripture and our experiences to understand this? How should this perspective influence our faith and actions in our own lives?"
