

Lesson 10 – Zeal Without Knowledge Read Romans 10

- 1. What central themes emerge from this chapter? How do these themes relate to the overall message of the book?
- 2. In what ways does Paul's prayer reflect his love and concern for the nation of Israel? How can we apply this same heart for others in our own lives?
- 3. What attributes of Israel does Paul commend, and what does he identify as their shortcomings? How can understanding both strengths and weaknesses contribute to our personal growth?
- 4. Why do you think Israel struggled to submit to the righteousness of God? What barriers might prevent us from fully embracing God's righteousness today?
- 5. According to verses 9-10, what does it mean to confess and believe? How do these actions interconnect in the context of our faith journey?
- 6. For whom is righteousness by faith intended, based on verses 11-13? How can this broaden our understanding of God's grace?

2 [Type text]

- 7. What steps are involved in the process that leads a person to call upon the Lord, according to verses 14-15? How can we facilitate this process in our communities?
- 8. What implications does Romans 10:17 have on our understanding of faith? How can we nurture and grow our faith in daily life?
- 9. Reflect on the opportunities the Jews had to call upon the Lord (verse 18). What does this reveal about God's desire for all people to seek Him?
- 10. How does God's plan to make His people jealous (verses 19-20) illustrate His strategy for drawing people to Himself? How can we understand jealousy in a positive light when it comes to spiritual matters?